

I am against any measure to implement a broadcast flag or copy protection on high definition television. Broadcasters and rights holders have already eroded fair-use enough- they do not need more control over distribution.